Docket No.: 3350-05G Client No.: EBILL-G

ABSTRACT

To generate authorization user of payment electronically presented bills, information corresponding to a plurality of bills for a single user is displayed on a single The displayed information screen. includes information representing a first bill and information representing a second A user input including a selection of at least one of the first bill information and the second bill information, and an authorization of payment received. is single message authorizing payment of the at least one of the first bill and the second bill represented by the selected information is then generated based on the received user input.